Notes: The French did not confine themselves to the town of New Amsterdam entirely, but formed settlements on Staten Island, the upper end of Manhattan, Long Island, and in Westchester County.

Staten Island, in the bay of New York, was one of their favorite asylums. “It might properly have been called “Huguenot Island.” A considerable number of refugees settled there in 1657, locating their dwellings near the site of the present town of Richmond. The names of Guion, Dissosway, Bedell, Fontaine, Reseau, La Tourette, Rutan, Puillon, Mercereau, LaConte, Butten, Mancey, Perrin, Larselene, De Pue, Corssen, Martineau, Tuenire, Morgan, Le Guine and Jouerney have been preserved. Like the descendants of the emigrants to Ulster County, the progeny of the refugees to Staten Island still occupy, in many cases, the land held by their ancestors.

October, 1706, I, Francis Martense, of Staten Island, yeomen, being in health of body. I leave to Stephen Martense, son of my son Stephen, late of Staten Island, deceased, £300 when he is of age. I leave to my wife Hannah all the rest of estate during her life, but if she marries, then only the use of one-third. After my wife's decease I leave all the estate, one half to my grandson, Stephen Martense, and the rest to my grandson, Vincent Fountain, Jr., son of Vincent Fountain, Sr. I make my wife Hester, and Mr. Mark Dusasoa, Jr., Mr. Stephen Richards, and Mr. Abraham Lakeman, executors.

Witnesses, D. Van Brugh, Joseph Huddlestone, William Huddlestone. Proved before Thomas Wenham, Esq., August 5, 1707.

Title: Francois's character
No descriptionof his character has been preserved by posterity. The few facts about him in the records indicate he was a determined and spirited person interested in creating a meaningful & successful life. It would appear that he was courageous and not the least bit shy of fighting for what he thought was right. The people of the Ile de Re are known to be independent and strong willed, having suffered persecution for their Protestant beliefs in a country ruled by Catholism.. Francois shared these traits as well. Apparently he had come to New York, to get established & then return for his wife & 3 children, who had all passed away by Aug 1674.

Instructions for Using This Form

- Write all names as full, main, legal names in the order they are spoken. Write a woman's maiden name (birth name), not her married name.
- Write all dates as day, month, and year, such as 4 Oct 1996.
- Write all places in order of smallest to largest political jurisdiction, separated by commas, such as Tryon, Polk, North Carolina, USA, or Wymondham, Norfolk, England.
- If you need room to write additional information, use the "Notes" section below.
- When you fill out a family group record for a person, write the number of the family group record next to the "F" in the status box under the name (for example, F 6). If a person had multiple families and therefore has multiple family group records, write all of the family group record numbers (for example, F 6, 9, 41).

F	Family group records on which this person is listed

Notes Attach additional sheets as necessary.
